CHICAGO, December 5, 1871.

To the Officers of the Germania, Hanover, Niagara and Republic Fire Ins. Co's of New York:

GENTLEMEN: The course pursued by your Companies in the adjustment and payment of our own claims, and so far as we know, ALL claims for losses in the great fire in Chicago, has been so highly honorable, prompt and straightforward, and marked by such apparent desire to deal justly towards all parties, under all circumstances, that we desire voluntarily to acknowledge it to the business public. We consider that no stronger test could be made, both of the responsibility and of the integrity of an Insurance organization, than yours has passed through here successfully and creditably. With an unimpaired Capital and undiminished responsibility, and a record for equitable settlement, certainly surpassed by none, we congratulate you on the career of future prosperity, to which your actions here have so justly entitled you, and remain,

THE "DUMMY."

We find the following in a Richmond, Va., paper:

In Gov. Wells' great speech at Petersburg, after commenting upon Mayor Kelley's indorsement of the Ku-klux organization, he read the following extract from the Mayor's speech made at Petersburg, on Wednesday night:

"What shall I say of the dummy driving his horse along the Jersey beach and calling himself President?"

I know, said the Governor, Mayor Kelley as an accomplished schollar; a gentleman noted for his refinement and culture; ordinarily courteous and polite. I am surprised that he, of all men, the Chief Magistrate of the queenly city of Richmond, who knows so well what decent respect requires, should have been betrayed into the use of such gross and improper language, but as he asks the question I shall answer:

Who was the matchless hero of Donnelson, Shiloh and Vicksburg?

"The dummy who drives his horse along the Jersey Beach!"

Who was it that led 100,000 heroes to victory over Lee and his before unconquered army from the Rapidan to the Wilderness—to the James to Petersburg to Richmond and the old appletree at Appomattox?

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it that planed, that flanked, that fought, that shelled, that charged at Seadman, at Fort Hall and Fort Damnation?

Who was it that seized the tiger of secession by the throat, and, holding him there, said to those who cavilled, to those who hoped, and those who feared: "I will fight it out on this line if it takes all summer?"

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it after the victory was won and the Union safe, said to Lee and the conquered army whose courage, honor and manhood he respected: "Return to your homes and you shall not be disturbed by the United States authorities as long as you observe your parole and obey the laws of the place where you reside?"

Who was it that said to Lee, "Let the soldiers of your army who own the the horses in their charge, take them home with them, for they will need them for their Spring's plowing and farm work?"

Who was it when Lee, Wise and other Confederate Generals were indicted by the Grand Jury said: "The officers and men paroled at Appomattox cannot be tried for treason—good faith as well as true policy dictates that we should observe the condition of that Convention?"

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it that said "six years having elapsed since the last gun was fired, is it not time that the disabilities imposed by the Fifteenth Amendment should be removed?

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it that restored Virginia and reclad her in the full, bright, shining garb of a sovereign State, and now calm and serene, unangered, patient and faithful, dares, unmindful of the threats the abuse and lying slanders heaped upon him, to do his duty alike to friend and foe, to God, his country and himself?

"It was the dummy!"

Who is it that will live in the hearts of his countrymen—revered at home and abroad, the great soldier the modest citizen, the faithful public servant, unostentatious, unassuming, brave without ambition, forebearing, resolute in doing what he deems right, but never offensive in asserting himself as soldier, General or Chief—for a thousand years after his poor detractors have gone down to a forgotten grave?

"It is the dummy driving his horse along the Jersey beach!"

No words can give an adequate description of the dramatic effect and tremendous power of this reply. The voice of the speaker was clear as a bell, and was heard by every man of the 3,000 present and might have been heard by 20,000. As often as he commenced the refrain, "It is the dummy," the audience arose and shouted, cheered, laughed, and wept alternately. Such an effect has rarely if ever been produced on a mass of people. The effect of that meeting will never be forgotten.

ONLY SAM, DAT'S ALL.

During the last winter of the war, a contraband came into the Federal lines in North Carolina, and was marched up to the officer of the day to give an account of himself, whereupon the following colloquy ensued:

"What is your name?"

"My name's Sam."

"Sam what?"

"No, sah, not Sam Watt, I's jist Sam."

"What's your other name?"

"I hasn't got no oder name sah. I'se Sam—dat's all."

"What's your master's name?"

"I'se got no master now, massa run ned away—yah! yah! I'se free now."

"Well, what's your father and mother's name?"

"I'se got none, sah neber had none. I'se jist Sam—ain't nobody else."

"Haven't you got any brothers and sisters?"

"No, sah; neber had none. No brudder, no sister, no fader, no massa—nothin' but Sam. When you so Sam you see all there is of us

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land.—Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fitly demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individuals's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principle of the debt and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

VINEGAR BITTERS

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 Commerce street, N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Save a distinguished physician, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

CHICAGO, December 5, 1871.

To the Officers of the Hermania, Hanover, Niagara and Republic Fire Ins. Co's of New York:

GENTLEMEN: The course pursued by your Companies in the adjustment and payment of our own claims, and so far as we know, ALL claims for losses in the great fire in Chicago, has been so highly honorable, prompt and well calculated, and marked by such apparent desire to deal justly towards all parties, under all circumstances, that we desire voluntarily to acknowledge it to the business public. We consider that no strong- er test could be made, both of the responsibility and of the integrity of an Insurance organization, than yours has passed through here successfully and creditably. With an unimpaired Capital and unblemished responsibility, and a record for equitable settlement, certainly surpassed by none, we can congratulate you on the career of future prosperity, to which your actions here have so fairly entitled you, and remain,

THE "DUMMY."

We find the following in a Richmond, Va., paper:

In Gov. Wells' great speech at Petersburg, after commenting upon Mayor Kelley's indorsement of the Ku-klux organization, he read the following extract from the Mayor's speech made at Petersburg, on Wednesday night:

"What shall I say of the dummy driving his horse along the Jersey beach and calling himself President?"

I know, said the Governor, Mayor Kelley as an accomplished schollar; a gentleman noted for his refinement and culture; ordinarily courteous and polite. I am surprised that he, of all men, the Chief Magistrate of the queenly city of Richmond, who knows so well what decent respect requires, should have been betrayed into the use of such gross and improper language, but as he asks the question I shall answer:

Who was the matchless hero of Donelson, Shiloh and Vicksburg?

"The dummy who drives his horse along the Jersey Beach!"

Who was it that led 100,000 heroes to victory over Lee and his before unconquered army from the Rapidan to the Wilderness—to the James to Petersburg to Richmond and the old appletree at Appomattox?

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it that planed, that flanked, that fought, that shelled, that charged at Seadman, at Fort Hall and Fort Damonton?

Who was it that seized the tiger of secession by the throat, and, holding him there, said to those who cavilled, to those who hoped, and those who feared: "I will fight it out on this line if it takes all summer?"

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it after the victory was won and the Union safe, said to Lee and the conquered army whose courage, honor and manhood he respected: "Return to your homes and you shall not be disturbed by the United States authorities as long as you observe your parole and obey the laws of the place where you reside?"

Who was it that said to Lee, "Let the soldiers of your army who own the the horses in their charge, take them home with them, for they will need them for their Spring's plowing and farm work?"

Who was it when Lee, Wise and other Confederate Generals were indicted by the Grand Jury said: "The officers and men paroled at Appomattox cannot be tried for treason—good faith as well as true policy dictates that we should observe the condition of that Convention?"

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it that said "six years having elapsed since the last gun was fired, is it not time that the disabilities imposed by the Fifteenth Amendment should be removed?

"It was the dummy!"

Who was it that restored Virginia and reclad her in the full, bright, shining garb of a sovereign State, and now calm and serene, unangered, patient and faithful, dares, unmindful of the threats the abuse and lying slanders heaped upon him, to do his duty alike to friend and foe, to God, his country and himself?

"It was the dummy!"

Who is it that will live in the hearts of his countrymen—revered at home and abroad, the great soldier the modest citizen, the faithful public servant, unostentatious, unassuming, brave without ambition, forebearing, resolute in doing what he deems right, but never offensive in asserting himself as soldier, General or Chief—for a thousand years after his poor detractors have gone down to a forgotten grave?

"It is the dummy driving his horse along the Jersey beach!"

No words can give an adequate description of the dramatic effect and tremendous power of this reply. The voice of the speaker was clear as a bell, and was heard by every man of the 3,000 present and might have been heard by 20,000. As often as he commenced the refrain, "It is the dummy," the audience arose and shouted, cheered, laughed, and wept alternately. Such an effect has rarely if ever been produced on a mass of people. The effect of that meeting will never be forgotten.

ONLY SAM, DAT'S ALL.

During the last winter of the war, a contraband came into the Federal lines in North Carolina, and was marched up to the officer of the day to give an account of himself, whereupon the following colloquy ensued:

"What is your name?"

"My name's Sam."

"Sam what?"

"No, sah, not Sam Watt, I's jist Sam."

"Wint's your other name?"

"I hasn't got no oder name sah. I'se Sam—dat's all."

"What's your master's name?"

"I'se got no master now, massa ran ned away—yah! yah! I'se free now."

"Well, what's your father and mother's name?"

"I'se got none, sah—feber had none. I'se jist Sam—ain't nobody else."

"Haven't you got any brothers and sisters?"

"No, sah; neber had none. No bradder, no sister, no fader, no massa—nothin' but Sam. When you see Sam you see all there is of us

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the Platform adopted by the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia:

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated 4,000,000 slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage, exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity. It criminally punished no man for political offense, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with a firm hand the resultant disorders of the great war, and indicated a wise policy towards the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted. The public lands have been freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied; despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during Gen. Grant's Presidency at the rate of one hundred millions of dollars a year; a great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land.—Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to any citizen by reason of race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are the law, and should be carried out, according to their spirit, by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal is fitly demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to the further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenues, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, should be raised by duties on importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people, and we favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of time or cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, concerning allegiance, "once a subject, always a subject," having at last through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of an individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former governments, and we urge continual and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary immigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital, and for labor, the creator of capital, the largest opportunities, and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot box, and therefore are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of the public debt, in any form or disguise, as a national crime, and we witness with pride the reduction of the principle of the debt and upon the rates of interest upon the balance, and we confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by the speedy resumption of specie payments.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, and their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve the actions of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to State and to federal government. It disapproves of a resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

17. It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the hearts of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

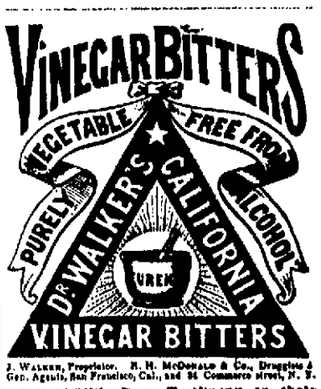
VINEGAR BITTERS



R. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

They are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Scarce a distinguished physician there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is entirely free from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No System of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

TO-MORROW.

For six months the preparations for the grand battle of to-morrow have been in progress. Both parties have strained every nerve to win the victory and one day more will tell the tale. That Ulysses S. Grant and Henry Wilson will be elected President and Vice-President there can no longer be any doubt. Indeed, if there was ever any doubt of such a result, the verdict of the people of seven states in their elections during the past three months has entirely dispelled that doubt, and there now remains nothing more to do except to get out a full vote to-morrow. There are, in addition to the President and Vice-President, other officers to elect, and it is of the utmost importance that the coalition candidates thereto should share the defeat of their chief They have joined in the tirade of abuse against Gen Grant and his supporters, and have not hesitated to deal out to the unthinking the most shameful and slanderous falsehoods, for the purpose of winning votes for themselves. All these deserve the defeat which is in store for them, if Republicans but do their duty.

There is but little use in discussing the issues of the campaign at this late day. Every question in dispute has been argued until it is threadbare, and until the people have become almost nauseated. We will therefore not presume to trifle with the patience of our readers, but simply call their attention to the fact that the Republican party has presented for their suffrages a ticket which is as blameless as anything human can be. From Ulysses S. Grant down to Michael Y Givler the names are as unobjectionable as any we have ever known put together in a similar combination. There is not a single candidate upon our ticket who is not abundantly competent to fill the office for which he was put in nomination. All are men of reputation and character not a single drummer's scrape them. Many of them have held public offices in the past, and always to the satisfaction of their constituents. Therefore there is no reason why Republicans cannot cheerfully vote and labor for the success of the entire ticket

Our cause is a righteous one our candidates are good men. Let us all vote the straight ticket

A CANARD.

We are informed that a circular will be issued to-night or to-morrow morning by the Democratic managers, charging that fraudulent Democratic tickets have been printed at the offices of the Republican newspapers, for use at the election to-morrow. The object of this circular is to create a prejudice against the Republicans which it is hoped will result in advantage to the Democrats. For the purpose of setting the matter before the public in its true light, we will state that no Democratic tickets, of any kind, have been printed at either the REPUBLICAN or Tribune offices, nor have we any order to print any such tickets. We have not now, nor have we had, the name of a single Democratic or Liberal candidate put in type, and the work of issuing bogus tickets is entirely in the hands of the other side.

GRANT OR GREELEY.

DECATUR, ILL., Nov. 4, 1872.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—To-morrow every legal voter in the land is called upon to go to the polls and vote for either General Grant or Horace Greeley for the Presidency. Perhaps nearly all have, during the campaign, heard political speeches, read some, and heard this or that man advocating in his way the cause of Grant or Greeley, and by this means the most of men have made up their minds, and no amount of talk or logic can turn them in their choice.

A few are undecided, and to those few may we not ask the careful consideration of the following facts in regard to this, in some respects, singular political campaign: Why is it a singular campaign? Nothing more nor less than that Horace Greeley is the Democratic candidate for the Presidency!! What, says one, Greeley of the New York Tribune? Yes, sir. How is this? Why, Lyman Trumbull, of Illinois, who has been in office for the last thirty years—eighteen of which he has spent as U S. Senator from Illinois—having been sent there by the Republican party, and knowing they would not return him, turned his back upon the party, and with C. Schurz, B. G. Brown, Doolittle, Col. Lieb, "Boss" Tweed, Mayor Hall, John Morrissey, Jeff. Davis, Congressman Beck, Gen. Hodge and Lord Buckingham concluded they would form a God morality party, composed strictly of honest men, such as we have named above, and that no office seeker should come into this strictly reform party. Trumbull expected with the help of C. Schurz and a little $10,000 purse he had accidentally accumulated while serving as an honest Senator, that he would be made the candidate and placed upon an honest platform; and that it would be a very simple thing with so much purity mixed together, to succeed before a christian people. I have known good people to have their little differences even in church and in the class, and so it turned out with Trumbull's well-laid scheme: All the bisops, clergy and members of this Holy Cincinnati Reformation could not agree upon Trumbull, and finally one of the faithful suggested the name of Horace Greeley. A man "endowed with many amiable qualities of head and heart," and who had for long years endeared himself to the pure Democracy of the country by a life of persistent toil and devotion to their cause; a man who never erred politically except once, and that was all his life; a man who was slow to form conclusions, but when formed was as immovable as a feather before the storm; a man who has always meant just what he wrote, and wrote just what he meant; a man of even temper, careful of the feelings of others, even when under excitement himself; a man devoid of "crotchets" and "idiosyncracies" which eminently fit him "for so high an office," a man who went back on the boys in blue, and gave encouragement to the enemies of the Union, during the darkest hours of the rebellion; who held secret meetings with the worst class of rebels for the purpose of accomplishing a dishonorable peace, and who became petulant and filled with wrath at the great and good Lincoln because he would not sanction bowing the knee of loyalty to treason and to rebels. This is the kind of man, we are told, who will "close the bloody chasm," and restore peace and accomplish reform in every department of the government. No one believes any such thing; but every knows Mr. Greeley is the candidate of an unholy coalition whose sole and only aim is to beat Gen. Grant, and to get into power.

Then vote for Gen. Grant, a man taken from among the people, who, regardless of party ties, stood by his country when the most of Mr. Greeley's present supporters, with sword in hand and treason in their hearts, were trying to dismember the Union. Vote for Grant because he helped to put down the rebellion, and has ever since stood firm for the right and redeemed every pledge he has ever made. Vote for Grant because he is no slanderer, and stands unimpeached to day before the world as a good man a true soldier, statesman, and patriot

A REPUBLICAN.

THE COUNTY TICKET.—The Republicans have an excellent ticket for county officers. Every man upon it will make a first class officer, and it should be voted through, without scratch or blemish Do not trade but give every one of the Republican candidates your hearty support.

DON'T trade votes. Democrats will be ready to swap off anything to gain votes for their members of the legislature We have no need to trade for anybody Vote the straight ticket, and it will be successful.

THE MAN THEY WANT.

The gentlemen who lay claim to the possession of "all the brains of the Republican party" think that William T. Moffett and Job A. Race are not as competent to represent them in the legislature as Jacob Frick, the now famous discoverer of "ne-pop-otism." That Jacob is a man of extraordinary natural ability we never for a moment doubted, but we had some doubt concerning his literary acquirements until we came in possession of a certain official document prepared by him. The reading of this document dispelled all our doubts, and we are now perfectly convinced that he is the very man to represent "the brains of the Republican party, if he can only get enough of votes. The document spoken of is the inaugural address prepared by him and sent in to the city council of Macon when Jacob was elected Mayor last spring, which is as follows, verbatim et literatim, et punctuatim:

Mayors office city of macon
April 15th 1872
to the Hon. City Council

Gentlemen as we are entering on our dutys of a nother year for the welfare and prosperity of the Citizens of Macon I would call your attention to a strict economy in all our Transaction. also to See that all the officers will inforse the Laws that Comes under there respective jurisdiction and make monthly or quarterly reports to the City Council, and I would further recommend to your earlyest Consideration the necessity of passing oresolution for publishing the proceedings of the City Council, I further hope to see you adopt some measure for the better keeping in repair of the sidewalks and the necessity of keeping the streets and alleys clean as et is necessary for the health and comfort of the Citizens of Macon, hopeing with aid of divine providence we will be able to engoy peace and prosperity

J Frick
Mayor

Who will now dare to say that Jacob is not qualified to represent "the brains of the Republican party?"

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, the Democratic governor-elect of Indiana, has generally been regarded as an honorable man, who would scorn to falsify truth for the sake of party advantage. Be this as it may, he certainly did a very dishonorable thing, unless we suppose him to be inexcusably ignorant, when, in his recent speech at Indianapolis, he made the following statement.

"On the 4th of March, 1871, a law was passed by Congress authorizing the President to appoint a commission for the purpose of investigating whether reform was needed in any department of our civil service. The commission appointed consisted wholly of Radicals They made a report, in which they said that there was much conceded corruption in different Federal offices, and that one-fourth of the revenue of the United States was lost in the process of collection."

The object of Mr. Hendricks, like that of Senator Trumbull, in making a similar statement, is to prove that under the present Administration, by the admission of the Civil Service Commission, one-fourth of the revenue is lost to the Government by the unfaithfulness and fraud of its officers. There never was a more glaring instance of falsification. In the first place, the commission expressly declare that the calculations upon which they base their statements has reference to the administration of Andrew Johnson, and not that of General Grant. In the second place, when they speak of one-fourth of the revenue as being lost, they do not mean one fourth of the revenue actually collected and lost on its way to the Treasury; but that under a reform system, such as they propose, the Government would realize one-fourth more of revenue by the faithful collection of all its dues than under the present "spoils system," which has been the practice of the country for the past thirty years. Yet Mr. Hendricks, misapplying and perverting their language, parades them before the public as confessing that the present Administration loses one-fourth of the revenue belonging to the Government. This is simply dishonest, especially so after the commission, over their own names, have publicly denied that they intended to make any such confession. The truth is, they said nothing about the Administration of President Grant, and this Mr. Hendricks will see, if he will take the trouble to read their report.—N. Y. Independent.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A great deal of talk was occasioned about town this evening over the arrest of Woodhull and Claflin Proceedings against them were taken by Mr A. W. Challis, a well known broker, who last night applied for warrants for their arrest for [illegible] scurrilous article on him

The Express says the arrest of the feminine firm—Woodhul and Claflin—for circulating obscene literature was to be expected from a machine more obscene in the way of words, ever obtained currency in any community, than the attacks of these women upon distinguished and honored clergymen. The scandalous and rebellious article of the twain consists of a gross attack upon the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Theodore Tilton.

GIVE one day to the cause. Turn out and vote, and then see that all your Republican neighbors do the same thing.

THE HORSE DISEASE.

NEW YORK, November 2.—The horse disease steadily diminishes, and there is a prospect of a general resumption of travel and business by Tuesday or Wednesday. Most of the street railway companies have agreed to stop work to-morrow, running only cars enough to comply with their charters. The deaths since the commencement of the disease exceed 1,000, many companies having concealed the real extent of their los

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Scarcely a horse was to be seen on the streets to-day Baggage wagons, drawn by men, were frequent spectacles. Many oxen will be used to-morrow in hauling goods. The steam railroads will run hourly trains to the suburbs to accommodate the public, and the council will doubtless authorize the use of dummies on the horse car tracks.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—A majority of the horses here are now suffering from the disease. Yesterday it made its appearance in the railroad stables in full force, and in a few hours numbers of horses were relieved the work. To-day no cars are running.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The horse disease is increasing under the influence of unfavorable weather. An effort was made to-day to run dummies on the city tracks, but it was unsuccessful, the engines constantly jumping the track. But few cars are running to-day.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—Of 800 horses owned by the City Passenger Railroad Company, all are sick except 11. No cars are running to-day.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. Nov. 3.—Springfield Boy, a noted trotting horse, and four other horses have died of epizootic within the past twenty-four hours.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The horse cars are withdrawn to-day as a protection to the horses against the cold rain prevailing. The few hacks needed for hotel guests were the only carriages seen. The disease appears to be slowly but surely passing away.

Dispatches from Maine represent the disease as spreading throughout the State.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANKFORT, November 3.—The cholera has appeared in various districts of Germany and it causing considerable alarm. The epidemic has not yet spread to any extent, and it is hoped that stringent sanitary measures will be promptly enforced so that it may be prevented from getting a foothold in the larger cities. The four cases which have occurred are of a violent type, and several have terminated fatally.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, November 2.—The floor of the Session-house at Durry, Scotland, has fallen. Two hundred were precipitated to the floor below. Two were killed and four wounded.

LATER.—A dispatch from Edinburgh, received this morning, gives particulars of the alarming accident which occurred yesterday at Durry, Scotland. A large meeting was being held at the Session-house, when the floor suddenly gave way and precipitated upwards of two hundred people to the floor below. Two persons were instantly killed and over forty injured.

Large crowds immediately gathered in the vicinity of the Town House and lent every assistance to extricate the injured from the fallen timbers and debris. Many of the injured will probably die.

The building was of great age, and, it is supposed, the timber supports being decayed, the weight of the Assembly caused them to give way.

VIENNA, Nov. 3.—The much dreaded Asiatic cholera has made its appearance in this city in the last two days. A number of cases have occurred, ending fatally The authorities have given orders for the disinfection of the streets and of every sanitary measure likely to arrest the plague Reports from other parts of the country announce the appearance of the epidemic and indicate that a general outbreak is not improbable unless the greatest caution be exercised to avoid such a calamity.

LYMAN TRUMBULL is the man we have to beat. A vote for Barnes, Lane or Frick is a vote for Trumbull.

...We learn that we have a large number of cases of the horse disease in the city, some of which are very severe.

NORTH CAROLINA RICE FIELDS.

The North Carolina rice fields, comprising the richest lands of the State, and capable of producing from 500,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of grain a year, are all covered with reeds and bushes, their ditches filled with mud, their dykes rotted away, and rice is no longer a staple product or an article of export. Thirty years ago the rice fields of the Cape Fear river produced a crop of 200,000 bushels, and most of which was shipped to Northern cities, where it was cleaned and prepared for market. Fifteen years later, just before the breaking out of the war, the yield of the same region had increased 500,000 bushels, and at the same time there were several mills in Wilmington in which the rice was cleaned before it was sent coastwise to New York or Baltimore, or shipped directly to foreign ports. In 1871 rice was planted on only one or two farms, and the entire crop was only 10,000 bushels—less than the amount consumed in the State—and this year only three planters have ventured to put in a crop of rice; and although the yield to the acre will be the greatest remembered by the oldest rice planter around Wilmington, the crop will not exceed 40,000 or 50,000 bushels.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING

Proclamation by the President:

WASHINGTON, October 11.—By the President of the United States of America: A proclamation. Whereas, The revolution of another year has again brought the time when it is usual to look back upon the past and publicly thank the Almighty for his mercies and his blessings; and,

Whereas, If any one people has more occasion than another for such thankfulness it is the citizens of the United States, whose government is their creature, subject to their behests; who have reserved to themselves ample civil and religious freedom and equality before the law; who, during the last twelve months have enjoyed exemption from any grevious or general calamity, and to whom prosperity in agriculture, manufactures and commerce has been vouchsafed.—Therefore, in view of these considerations, I recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship and there make their acknowledgments to God for His kindness and bounty.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, on this, the eleventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1872, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

Gentlemen,—Having had the opportunity to listen to your Pianos, under the playing of Herr Franz Bendel and Madame Arabella Goddard, at the World's Peace Jubilee, and also used them as accompaniment to my voice in a room of less size, it gives me pleasure to add my testimony to their superiority over any other Pianos I have heard or used.

This eminent German song-writer, author of "When the Swallows Homeward Fly," &c., says:
"One of the most pleasant surprises that have been afforded me in America has been in the listening to the magnificent Pianos manufactured in this country. Their reputation in Europe has always been of the first order, but it was not until my arrival here that I was given an opportunity to hear and carefully judge of all their merits.
"In the superb instruments manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co., and used at all the concerts of the great Boston Jubilee, there was combined a strength and purity of tone, elegance of finish, and those peculiar lasting qualities of rich sound and elaborate general workmanship—without which no Piano can be considered thoroughly good- such as I have never known to be surpassed I believe their Pianos to be as near absolute perfection as it is possible for the instrument to be brought."

TO-MORROW.

For six months the preparations for the grand battle of to-morrow have been in progress. Both parties have strained every nerve to win the victory and one day more will tell the tale. That Ulysses S. Grant and Henry Wilson will be elected President and Vice-President there can no longer be any doubt. Indeed, if there was ever any doubt of such a result, the verdict of the people of seven states in their elections during the past three months has entirely dispelled that doubt, and there now remains nothing more to do except to get out a full vote to-morrow. There are, in addition to the President and Vice-President, other officers to elect, and it is of the utmost importance that the coalition candidates therefor should share the defeat of their chief. They have joined in the tirade of abuse against Gen Grant and his supporters, and have not hesitated to deal out to the unthinking the most shameful and slanderous falsehoods, for the purpose of winning votes for themselves. All these deserve the defeat which is in store for them, if Republicans but do their duty.

There is but little use in discussing the issues of the campaign at this late day. Every question in dispute has been argued until it is threadbare, and until the people have become almost nauseated. We will therefore not presume to trifle with the patience of our readers, but simply call their attention to the fact that the Republican party has presented for their suffrages a ticket which is as blameless as anything human can be. From Ulysses S. Grant down to Michael Y Givler the names are as unobjectionable as any we have ever known put together in a similar combination. There is not a single candidate upon our ticket who is not abundantly competent to fill the office for which he was put in nomination. All are men of reputation and character not a single exception can be given. Many of them have held public offices in the past, and always to the satisfaction of their constituents. Therefore there is no reason why Republicans cannot cheerfully vote each for the success of the entire ticket.

A CANARD.

We are informed that a circular will be issued to-night or to-morrow morning by the Democratic managers, charging that fraudulent Democratic tickets have been printed at the offices of the Republican newspapers, for use at the election to-morrow. The object of this circular is to create a prejudice against the Republicans which it is hoped will result in advantage to the Democrats. For the purpose of setting the matter before the public in its true light, we will state that no Democratic tickets, of any kind, have been printed at either the REPUBLICAN or Tribune offices, nor have we any order to print any such tickets. We have not now, nor have we had, the name of a single Democratic or Liberal candidate put in type, and the work of issuing bogus tickets is entirely in the hands of the other side.

GRANT OR GREELEY.

DECATUR, ILL., Nov. 4, 1872.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—To-morrow every legal voter in the land is called upon to go to the polls and vote for either General Grant or Horace Greeley for the Presidency. Perhaps nearly all have, during the campaign, heard political speeches, read some, and heard this or that man advocating in his way the cause of Grant or Greeley, and by this means the most of men have made up their minds, and no amount of talk or logic can turn them in their choice.

A few are undecided, and to those few may we not ask the careful consideration of the following facts in regard to this, in some respects, singular political campaign: Why is it a singular campaign? Nothing more nor less than that Horace Greeley is the Democratic candidate for the Presidency!! What, says one, Greeley of the New York Tribune? Yes, sir. How is this? Why, Lyman Trumbull, of Illinois, who has been in office for the last thirty years—eighteen of which he has spent as U. S. Senator from Illinois—having been sent there by the Republican party, and knowing they would not return him, turned his back upon the party, and with C. Schurz, B. G. Brown, Doolittle, Col. Lieb, "Boss" Tweed, Mayor Hall, John Morrissey, Jeff. Davis, Congressman Beck, Gen. Hodge and Lord Buckingham concluded they would form a God morality party, composed strictly of honest men, such as we have named above, and that no office seeker should come into this strictly reform party. Trumbull expected with the help of C. Schurz and a little $10,000 purse he had accidentally accumulated while serving as an honest Senator, that he would be made the candidate and placed upon an honest platform; and that it would be a very simple thing with so much purity mixed together, to succeed before a christian people. I have known good people to have their little differences even in church and in the class, and so it turned out with Trumbull's well-laid scheme: All the bisops, clergy and members of this Holy Cincinnati Reformation could not agree upon Trumbull, and finally one of the faithful suggested the name of Horace Greeley. A man "endowed with many amiable qualities of head and heart," and who had for long years endeared himself to the pure Democracy of the country by a life of persistent toil and devotion to their cause; a man who never erred politically except once, and that was all his life; a man who was slow to form conclusions, but when formed was as immovable as a feather before the storm; a man who has always meant just what he wrote, and wrote just what he meant; a man of even temper, careful of the feelings of others, even when under excitement himself; a man devoid of "crotchets" and "idiosyncracies" which eminently fit him "for so high an office," a man who went back on the boys in blue, and gave encouragement to the enemies of the Union, during the darkest hours of the rebellion; who held secret meetings with the worst class of rebels for the purpose of accomplishing a dishonorable peace, and who became petulant and filled with wrath at the great and good Lincoln because he would not sanction bowin, the knee of loyalty to treason and to rebels. This is the kind of man, we are told, who will "close the bloody chasm," and restore peace and accomplish reform in every department of the government. No one believes any such thing; but every knows Mr. Greeley is the candidate of an unholy coalition whose sole and only aim is to beat Gen. Grant, and to get into power.

Then vote for Gen. Grant, a man taken from among the people, who, regardless of party ties, stood by his country when the most of Mr. Greeley's present supporters, with sword in hand and treason in their hearts, were trying to dismember the Union. Vote for Grant because he helped to put down the rebellion, and has ever since stood firm for the right and redeemed every pledge he has ever made. Vote for Grant because he is no slanderer, and stands unspeacied to day before the world as a good man a true soldier, statesman, and patriot.

A REPUBLICAN.

THE COUNTY TICKET.—The Republicans have an excellent ticket for county officers. Every man upon it will make a first class officer, and it should be voted through, without scratch or blemish. Do not trade but give every one of the Republican candidates your hearty support.

DON'T trade votes. Democrats will be ready to swap off anything to gain votes for their members of the legislature. We have no need to trade for anybody. Vote the straight ticket, and it will be successful.

THE MAN THEY WANT.

The gentlemen who lay claim to the possession of "all the brains of the Republican party" think that William T. Moffett and Job A. Race are not as competent to represent them in the legislature as Jacob Frick, the now famous discoverer of "ne-pop-otism." That Jacob is a man of extraordinary natural ability we never for a moment doubted, but we had some doubt concerning his literary acquirements until we came in possession of a certain official document prepared by him. The reading of this document dispelled all our doubts, and we are now perfectly convinced that he is the very man to represent "the brains of the Republican party, if he can only get enough of votes. The document spoken of is the inaugural address prepared by him and sent in to the city council of Macon when Jacob was elected Mayor last spring, which is as follows, verbatim et literatim, et punctatim:

Mayors office city of macon
April 15th 1872
to the Hon. City Council

Gentlemen as we are entering on our dutys of a nother year for the welfare and prosperity of the Citizens of Macon I would call your attention to a strict economy in all our Transaction. also to See that all the officers will inforse the Laws that Comes under there respective jurisdiction and make monthly or quarterly reports to the City Council, and I would further recommend to your earlyest Consideration the necessity of passing oresolution for publishing the proceedings of the City Council, I further hope to see you adopt some measure for the better keeping in repair of the sidewalks and the necessity of keeping the streets and alleys clean as it is necessary for the health and comfort of the Citizens of Macon, hopeing with aid of divine providence we will be able to engoy peace and prosperity

J Frick
Mayor

Who will now dare to say that Jacob is not qualified to represent "the brains of the Republican party?"

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, the Democratic governor-elect of Indiana, has generally been regarded as an honorable man, who would scorn to falsify truth for the sake of party advantage. Be this as it may, he certainly did a very dishonorable thing, unless we suppose him to be inexcusably ignorant, when, in his recent speech at Indianapolis, he made the following statement:

"On the 4th of March, 1871, a law was passed by Congress authorizing the President to appoint a commission for the purpose of investigating whether reform was needed in any department of our civil service. The commission appointed consisted wholly of Radicals They made a report, in which they said that there was much conceded corruption in different Federal offices, and that one-fourth of the revenue of the United States was lost in the process of collection."

The object of Mr. Hendricks, like that of Senator Trumbull, in making a similar statement, is to prove that under the present Administration, by the admission of the Civil Service Commission, one-fourth of the revenue is lost to the Government by the unfaithfulness and fraud of its officers. There never was a more glaring instance of falsification. In the first place, the commission expressly declare that the calculations upon which they base their statements has reference to the administration of Andrew Johnson, and not that of General Grant. In the second place, when they speak of one-fourth of the revenue as being lost, they do not mean one fourth of the revenue actually collected and lost on its way to the Treasury; but that under a reform system, such as they propose, the Government would realize one-fourth more of revenue by the faithful collection of all its dues than under the present "spoils system," which has been the practice of the country for the past thirty years. Yet Mr. Hendricks, misapplying and perverting their language, parades them before the public as confessing that the present Administration loses one-fourth of the revenue belonging to the Government. This is simply dishonest, especially so after the commission, over their own names, have publicly denied that they intended to make any such confession. The truth is, they said nothing about the Administration of President Grant, and this Mr. Hendricks will see, if he will take the trouble to read their report.—N. Y. Independent.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A great deal of talk was occasioned about town this evening over the arrest of Woodhull and Claflin Proceedings against them were taken by Mr A. W. Challis, a well known broker, who last night applied for warrants for their arrest for [illegible] articles in him

The Express says the arrest of the feminine firm—Woodhull and Claflin—for resulting obscene literature was to be expected from those more obscene in the way of words, ever obtained currency in any community, than the attacks of these women upon distinguished and honored clergymen. The scandalous and rebellious article of the twain consists of a gross attack upon the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Theodore Tilton.

GIVE one day to the cause. Turn out and vote, and then see that all your Republican neighbors do the same thing.

THE HORSE DISEASE.

NEW YORK, November 2.—The horse disease steadily diminishes, and there is a prospect of a general resumption of travel and business by Tuesday or Wednesday. Most of the street railway companies have agreed to stop work to-morrow, running only cars enough to comply with their charters. The deaths since the commencement of the disease exceed 1,000, many companies having concealed the real extent of their los

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Scarcely a horse was to be seen on the streets to-day Baggage wagons, drawn by men, were frequent spectacles. Many oxen will be used to-morrow in hauling goods. The steam railroads will run hourly trains to the suburbs to accommodate the public, and the council will doubtless authorize the use of dummies on the horse car tracks.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—A majority of the horses here are now suffering from the disease. Yesterday it made its appearance in the railroad stables in full force, and in a few hours numbers of horses were relieved the work. To-day no cars are running.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The horse disease is increasing under the influence of unfavorable weather. An effort was made to-day to run dummies on the city tracks, but it was unsuccessful, the engines constantly jumping the track. But few cars are running to-day.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3.—Of 800 horses owned by the City Passenger Railroad Company, all are sick except 11. No cars are running to-day.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. Nov. 3.—Springfield Boy, a noted trotting horse, and four other horses have died of epizootic within the past twenty-four hours.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The horse cars are withdrawn to-day as a protection to the horses against the cold rain prevailing. The few hacks needed for hotel guests were the only carriages seen. The disease appears to be slowly but surely passing away.

Dispatches from Maine represent the disease as spreading throughout the State.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANKFORT, November 3.—The cholera has appeared in various districts of Germany and it causing considerable alarm. The epidemic has not yet spread to any extent, and it is hoped that stringent sanitary measures will be promptly enforced so that it may be prevented from getting a foothold in the larger cities. The four cases which have occurred are of a violent type, and several have terminated fatally.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, November 2.—The floor of the Session-house at Durry, Scotland, has fallen. Two hundred were precipitated to the floor below. Two were killed and four wounded.

LATER.—A dispatch from Edinburgh, received this morning, gives particulars of the alarming accident which occurred yesterday at Durry, Scotland. A large meeting was being held at the Session-house, when the floor suddenly gave way and precipitated upwards of two hundred people to the floor below. Two persons were instantly killed and over forty injured.

Large crowds immediately gathered in the vicinity of the Town House and lent every assistance to extricate the injured from the fallen timbers and debris. Many of the injured will probably die.

The building was of great age, and, it is supposed, the timber supports being decayed, the weight of the Assembly caused them to give way.

VIENNA, Nov. 3.—The much dreaded Asiatic cholera has made its appearance in this city in the last two days. A number of cases have occurred, ending fatally. The authorities have given orders for the disinfection of the streets and of every sanitary measure likely to arrest the plague. Reports from other parts of the country announce the appearance of the epidemic and indicate that a general outbreak is not improbable unless the greatest caution be exercised to avoid such a calamity.

LYMAN TRUMBULL is the man we have to beat. A vote for Barnes, Lane or Frick is a vote for Trumbull.

...We learn that we have a large number of cases of the horse disease in the city, some of which are very severe.

NORTH CAROLINA RICE FIELDS.

The North Carolina rice fields, comprising the richest lands of the State, and capable of producing from 500,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of grain a year, are all covered with reeds and bushes, their ditches filled with mud, their dykes rotted away, and rice is no longer a staple product or an article of export. Thirty years ago the rice fields of the Cape Fear river produced a crop of 200,000 bushels, and most of which was shipped to Northern cities, where it was cleaned and prepared for market. Fifteen years later, just before the breaking out of the war, the yield of the same region had increased 500,000 bushels, and at the same time there were several mills in Wilmington in which the rice was cleaned before it was sent coastwise to New York or Baltimore, or shipped directly to foreign ports. In 1871 rice was planted on only one or two farms, and the entire crop was only 10,000 bushels—less than the amount consumed in the State—and this year only three planters have ventured to put in a crop of rice; and although the yield to the acre will be the greatest remembered by the oldest rice planter around Wilmington, the crop will not exceed 40,000 or 50,000 bushels.

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING

Proclamation by the President:

WASHINGTON, October 11.—By the President of the United States of America: A proclamation. Whereas, The revolution of another year has again brought the time when it is usual to look back upon the past and publicly thank the Almighty for his mercies and his blessings; and,

Whereas, If any one people has more occasion than another for such thankfulness it is the citizens of the United States, whose government is their creature, subject to their behests; who have reserved to themselves ample civil and religious freedom and equality before the law; who, during the last twelve months have enjoyed exemption from any grievous or general calamity, and to whom prosperity in agriculture, manufactures and commerce has been vouchsafed.—Therefore, in view of these considerations, I recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship and there make their acknowledgments to God for His kindness and bounty.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, on this, the eleventh day of October, in the year of our Lord 1872, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

(Signed,) U. S. GRANT.

HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

—TO—

Messrs. HALLET, DAVIS & Co.

Gentlemen,—Having had the opportunity to listen to your Pianos, under the playing of Herr Franz Rendel and Madame Arabella Goddard, at the World's Peace Jubilee, and also used them as accompaniment to my voice in a room of less size, it gives me pleasure to add my testimony to their superiority over any other Piano I have heard or used.

Hallet, Davis & Co. Pianos.

MESSRS. HALLET, DAVIS & CO.:
Gentlemen,—It gives me extreme pleasure that I am able to compliment you with manufacturing the best Pianos I ever saw in my life.
Regarding technique and tone, I believe your instruments will always far excel all other manufactures of the kind.
(Signed) H. SARO,
Royal Prussian Musical Director.

FRANZ ABT

AND THE

Hallet, Davis & Co. Pianos.

This eminent German song-writer, author of "When the Swallows Homeward Fly," &c., says:
"One of the most pleasant surprises that have been afforded me in America has been to find listening to the magnificent Pianos manufactured in this country. Their reputation in Europe has always been of the first order, but it was not until my arrival here that I was given an opportunity to hear and carefully judge of all their merits.
"In the superb instruments manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co., and used at all the concerts of the Great Boston Jubilee, there was combined a strength and purity of tone, elegance of finish, and those peculiar lasting qualities of rich sound and elaborate general workmanship—without which no Piano can be considered thoroughly good—such as I have never known to be surpassed. I believe their Pianos to be as near absolute perfection as it is possible for the instrument to be brought."
(Signed) FRANZ ABT.

Franz Bendel

AND THE

Hallet, Davis & Co. Pianos.

During my sojourn in Boston, at the time of the World's Peace Jubilee, it was of the greatest interest to me to become acquainted with and play the Grand Pianos of Messrs. Hallet, Davis & Co. I was filled with astonishment that these Grand Pianos were so grand in their power of tone that they filled the vast spaces of the Coliseum—the largest concert hall in the world—and that they perfectly [illegible] with the orchestra, [illegible] and power of tone.
I pronounce these Pianos worthy of Franz Liszt and of any concert hall in the world, and in their judgment, have placed these Pianos before the public, who, in their judgment, bring the first and most excellent Pianos manufactured in America.
(Signed) FRANZ BENDEL.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

..The saloons will be closed to-morrow.

...How about that rain this morning?

...Your duty—to be at the polls to-morrow.

...Do not let anything prevent your attendance at the polls.

...Vote the Republican ticket to-morrow.

...Be at the polls and see that the thing is done fairly.

...A. Slyder used profane language, for which he was fined $6 and costs by Justice Albert. The costs amounted to $17. Rather expensive swearing.

...Peter Sells was fined $3 and costs for fast driving, by Justice Albert.

...Wm. H. McGee was intoxicated. It cost him $8 and costs to appease the wrath of the city ordinance.

...Adam Keck died this morning at 4 o'clock, of dropsy.

...Republicans, your place to-morrow is at the polls. Go early, see that every man in your district votes, and be sure that he votes the straight, unscratched ticket.

..We are under obligations to W. E. Wilson for a copy of Scribner's Monthly for November. It is a number of unusual interest.

..Life, according to the Arabic proverb is composed of two parts: that which is past, a dream, and that which is to come, a wish.

..When we talk in the darkness we speak more faithfully than when we see each other's face, and we also say more.—Chicago Journal.

It's a mistake, for proof of which we will refer to any of the enterprising young men or ladies of this city.

...Have you been to see J. T. Hand's stock of goods? He is closing out at the lowest prices.

...A mania for fancy work has suddenly seized on the young ladies, and all the pleasant young fellows are overwhelmed with the products of the toil.

...A great many young ladies have announced their intention of not going to parties this winter, and in proof of sincerity, are not having any party dresses made up.

...The city authorities have made several much needed improvements in the crossings on many of the streets. It is to be hoped that they will not weary in well-doing.

... Chicago woman tried to suicide by swallowing two yards of shoe strings, but had got so accustomed to lacing that they didn't have any effect upon her.

.. Now is the time to advertise. Although it is advantageous to advertise at all times, now is especially the "accepted time," as the farmers are receiving cash for the products of the summer.

...The gentlemen referred to in our article in Saturday's issue headed, "Ladies Take Notice," desire us to say that they are the same ones spoken of in the old song, "Jack and Gill went up a hill," etc.

Roll of Honor, in the third ward School, fifth grade, consisting of those pupils who have not during the last month, been tardy, absent or out of order, and whose recitations have been good:

How Was It?—The confederates had announced their intention of holding the last grand meeting of the campaign at the court house last Saturday evening—Major Nelson was announced as one of the speakers. The evening came and quite a number of the members of both parties assembled to hear the Major discuss his side of the question. But for some reason unknown to us he did not put in an appearance. We will charitably suppose that the managers of the party had concluded that the meeting would be a failure and that the Major had better be sent to the country, where the Democrats are still holding to that absurd notion that Greeley will be elected.

Almost Another Serious Accident.—A Mr Robert Montgomery with wife and baby, were out taking a ride Saturday evening, just north of the city, in some manner the bolt that holds the front wheels to the bed of the buggy, broke, throwing the occupants out into the road. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. Mr Montgomery received some slight bruises about the face; the horse ran on with the front wheels, and was stopped about a mile from the scene of the accident. The buggy was almost completely demolished. This is the fourth accident we have heard of that occurred Saturday, that was either directly or indirectly attributable to horses. Solomon was right when he said, "Horses are a vain thing for safety."

Accidents.—As Capt. Misner and J. M. Irwin were coming from the depot Saturday evening, an express wagon ran into the buggy in which they were seated, breaking the hind axle and throwing them out into the road. Capt. Misner's left arm was broken just above the wrist. Drs W. J. and Cass Chenoweth set the broken arm.

A son of S. D. Lilleston, who resides just west of the city, fell from a hay wagon Saturday evening, and broke his right leg close to the ankle. Drs. Moore and Chenoweth attended to the case.

Mrs. Hostetler was thrown from a buggy Saturday evening, breaking her right arm and spraining her left wrist very severely. Drs. Hostetler and Chenoweth administered the healing balm.

A Man Found Dead—A Mystery.—A German of the name of Fred. Villaiger, came to the Franklin House, near the depot, Saturday morning, and asked for lodging. His request was granted, and nothing more was thought of the man until yesterday morning, when he started down stairs, and when about half way down the stairs he fell, but was not seriously injured. He was picked up and put to bed by the landlord of the house, and about an hour afterwards a boy was sent to the room to inquire of him if he wanted anything. The man was dead. Upon his body quite a number of papers were found, some of them in English and others in German. It would seem that he resides either at Edwardsville or Litchfield, that he has a family, and that he is a beggar. One of the papers found in his pocket would indicate that he had collected some $15 or $20, but only $1 could be found on his person after death. He was not an intemperate man. His right arm and leg were so deformed as to be useless. The man seemed to be well and hearty when he made his appearance at the Franklin House. A letter was found in his pocket directed to one Shell, of Edwardsville.

The following was the verdict of the Coronor's jury:

DECATUR, ILL., NOV. 3, 1872.

We, the undrsigned jurors, summoned and sworn by M. Y. Givler, Coroner of Macon county, in the State of Illinois, to hold an inquest over the dead body of Frederick Villinger, found dead in his bed at the Franklin House, agree that he came to his death from causes unknown to the jurors. Probable cause, apoplexy.

Religious News.—Owing to the pleasant weather there were large congregations at all of the churches yesterday.

The Baptist minister was unable to be in the city yesterday, so that no services were held at that church.

Rev. J. H. Soule preached to his congregation for the first time as their regular pastor yesterday. His sermon in the morning was on the "Duties and Responsibilities of the Pastor." His congregation speak highly of both of his efforts, and think he will be a valuable accession to our already effective corps of ministers.

Rev. N. P. Heath called the attention of a large congregation last evening to the 2d verse of the 2d chapter of 1st Corinthians, "For I am determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified."

Had Paul lived in our day, he would have been called an enthusiast; even in his own day he was persecuted—driven from city to city, from court to court. At all times and seasons he had but one theme, one thought, "Jesus Christ and him crucified." The question naturally arises can the Apostle be vindicated in his course, was he right and just. Men of one idea are generally considered dangerous. We have never had a reformer in religion or politics that was not a man of one idea, one conviction. For this they lived, labored and suffered; such men generally succeed. Then we ask was Paul right? We think he was; to every rational, just and honest mind his course stands vindicated. Evidence is abundant, facts multiply on every hand.

1st, What does the Apostle mean by the assertion? It must not be construed too literally, for he did preach on other themes; it is evident that he did not devote his whole time and attention to this point. It did not, however, occupy a secondary position; it was the foundation, the central truth; all other subjects were connected with it. Paul was not a bigot, he took a sober and rational view of all things. The cross was connected either directly or indirectly with all other subjects; it was the connecting link. The religion of the cross set forth a system of ethics that was true and in opposition to the systems of that day. These systems did not agree; they contradicted each other. The vice of one was the virtue of the other. The cross comes not, with complicated system of ethics, with no contradictions, it is consistent with all wants and desires of the human soul; it makes vice manifest. There is no happiness where there is no progress, either in state, family or community. Vice is opposed to all progress. The cross of Christ places vice and virtue in their true positions and relations. The cross is attractive; there was nothing in the old system of philosophy that was attractive—the cross wins its way, not by force; it comes as an angel of light and mercy; it is drawing the nations closer together.

The speaker was not in sympathy with the notion that the world was worse than it was in the "good old days." If the cross fails to win you, you are lost. It is attractive because it is a system of purity. It is more than mere supposition—it brings peace and happiness. Your philosophy may carry you when all is well, when you are prosperous. But let death or adversity come, and there is a void that is not filled. The cross is perfectly adapted to every condition and situation. Simple faith is all that is required. The child, the man, the rich, the poor—all can exercise this simple faith.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Monday Evening, Nov. 4.

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN will be delivered to subscribers in any part of the city, at Twenty Cents per Week.

Local Notices will be inserted at Ten Cents per line for the first insertion, and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Rates for time advertisements will be furnished upon application at the office.

TO DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscriptions to the DAILY REPUBLICAN will be collected every Saturday, at the places where the paper is delivered, unless otherwise ordered.

IMPORTANT.

We would be much obliged if our subscribers would inform the carrier at what particular place they desire their papers to be left.

For the Legislature.

We are authorized to announce C. W. AIRES, Esq., as an Independent candidate for the Legislature. [oct11-d1m

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...The saloons will be closed to-morrow.

...How about that rain this morning?

...Your duty—to be at the polls to-morrow.

...Do not let anything prevent your attendance at the polls.

...Vote the Republican ticket to-morrow.

...Be at the polls and see that the thing is done fairly.

...A. Slyder used profane language, for which he was fined $6 and costs by Justice Albert. The costs amounted to $17. Rather expensive sweating.

...Peter Sells was fined $3 and costs for fast driving, by Justice Albert.

...Wm. H. McGee was intoxicated. It cost him $8 and costs to appease the wrath of the city ordinance.

...Adam Keck died this morning at 4 o'clock, of dropsy.

...Republicans, your place to-morrow is at the polls. Go early, see that every man in your district votes, and be sure that he votes the straight, unscratched ticket.

...We are under obligations to W. E. Wilson for a copy of Scribner's Monthly for November. It is a number of unusual interest.

...Life, according to the Arabic proverb is composed of two parts; that which is past, a dream, and that which is to come, a wish.

...When we talk in the darkness we speak more faithfully than when we see each other's face, and we also say more.—Chicago Journal.

It's a mistake, for proof of which we will refer to any of the enterprising young men or ladies of this city.

...Have you been to see J. T. Hand's stock of goods? He is closing out at the lowest prices.

...A mania for fancy work has suddenly seized on the young ladies, and all the pleasant young fellows are overwhelmed with the products of the toil.

...A great many young ladies have announced their intention of not going to parties this winter, and in proof of sincerity, are not having any party dresses made up.

...The city authorities have made several much needed improvements in the crossings on many of the streets. It is to be hoped that they will not weary in well-doing.

... Chicago woman tried to suicide by swallowing two yards of shoe strings, but had got so accustomed to lacing that they didn't have any effect upon her.

.. Now is the time to advertise. Although it is advantageous to advertise at all times, now is especially the "accepted time," as the farmers are receiving cash for the products of the summer.

...The gentlemen referred to in our article in Saturday's issue headed, "Ladies Take Notice," desire us to say that they are the same ones spoken of in the old song, "Jack and Gill went up a hill," etc.

Roll of Honor, in the third ward School, fifth grade, consisting of those pupils who have not during the last month, been tardy, absent or out of order, and whose recitations have been good:

How Was It? —The confederates had announced their intention of holding the last grand meeting of the campaign at the court house last Saturday evening — Major Nelson was announced as one of the speakers. The evening came and quite a number of the members of both parties assembled to hear the Major discuss his side of the question. But for some reason unknown to us he did not put in an appearance. We will charitably suppose that the managers of the party had concluded that the meeting would be a failure and that the Major had better be sent to the country, where the Democrats are still holding to that absurd notion that Greeley will be elected.

Almost Another Serious Accident. — A Mr. Robert Montgomery, wife and baby, were taking a ride Saturday evening, just north of the city, in some manner the bolt that holds the front wheels to the bed of the buggy, broke, throwing the occupants out into the road. Fortunately no one was seriously injured. Mr. Montgomery received some slight bruises about the face; the horse ran on with the front wheels, and was stopped about a mile from the scene of the accident. The buggy was almost completely demolished. This is the fourth accident we have heard of that occurred Saturday, that was either directly or indirectly attributable to horses. Solomon was right when he said, "Horses are a vain thing for safety."

Accidents.—As Capt. Misner and J. M. Irwin were coming from the depot Saturday evening, an express wagon ran into the buggy in which they were seated, breaking the hind axle and throwing them out into the road. Capt. Misner's left arm was broken just above the wrist. Drs. W. J. and Cass Chenoweth set the broken arm.

A son of S. D. Lilleston, who resides just west of the city, fell from a hay wagon Saturday evening, and broke his right leg close to the ankle. Drs. Moore and Chenoweth attended to the case.

Mrs. Hostetler was thrown from a buggy Saturday evening, breaking her right arm and spraining her left wrist very severely. Drs. Hostetler and Chenoweth administered the healing balm.

A Man Found Dead—A Mystery.—A German of the name of Fred. Villinger, came to the Franklin House, near the depot, Saturday morning, and asked for lodging. His request was granted, and nothing more was thought of the man until yesterday morning, when he started down stairs, and when about half way down the stairs he fell, but was not seriously injured. He was picked up and put to bed by the landlord of the house, and about an hour afterwards a boy was sent to the room to inquire of him if he wanted anything. The man was dead. Upon his body quite a number of papers were found, some of them in English and others in German. It would seem that he resides either at Edwardsville or Litchfield, that he has a family, and that he is a beggar. One of the papers found in his pocket would indicate that he had collected some $15 or $20, but only $1 could be found on his person after death. He was not an intemperate man. His right arm and leg were so deformed as to be useless. The man seemed to be well and hearty when he made his appearance at the Franklin House. A letter was found in his pocket directed to one Shell, of Edwardsville.

The following was the verdict of the Coroner's jury:

DECATUR, ILL., NOV. 3, 1872.

We, the undersigned jurors, summoned and sworn by M. Y. Givler, Coroner of Macon county, in the State of Illinois, to hold an inquest over the dead body of Frederick Villinger, found dead in his bed at the Franklin House, agree that he came to his death from causes unknown to the jurors. Probable cause, apoplexy.

Religious Notes.—Owing to the pleasant weather there were large congregations at all of the churches yesterday.

The Baptist minister was unable to be in the city yesterday, so that no services were held at that church.

Rev. J. H. Soule preached to his congregation for the first time as their regular pastor yesterday. His sermon in the morning was on the "Duties and Responsibilities of the Pastor." His congregation speak highly of both of his efforts, and think he will be a valuable accession to our already effective corps of ministers.

Rev. N. P. Heath called the attention of a large congregation last evening to the 2d verse of the 2d chapter of 1st Corinthians, "For I am determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified."

Had Paul lived in our day, he would have been called an enthusiast; even in his own day he was persecuted—driven from city to city, from court to court. At all times and seasons he had but one theme, one thought, "Jesus Christ and him crucified." The question naturally arises can the Apostle be vindicated in his course, was he right and just. Men of one idea are generally considered dangerous. We have never had a reformer in religion or politics that was not a man of one idea—one conviction. For this they lived, labored and suffered; such men generally succeed. Then we ask was Paul right? We think he was; to every rational, just and honest mind his course stands vindicated. Evidence is abundant, facts multiply on every hand.

1st, What does the Apostle mean by the assertion? It must not be construed too literally, for he did preach on other themes; it is evident that he did not devote his whole time and attention to this point. It did not, however, occupy a secondary position; it was the foundation, the central truth; all other subjects were connected with it. Paul was not a bigot, he took a sober and rational view of all things. The cross was connected either directly or indirectly with all other subjects; it was the connecting link. The religion of the cross set forth a system of ethics that was true and in opposition to the systems of that day. These systems did not agree; they contradicted each other. The vice of one was the virtue of the other. The cross comes not, with complicated system of ethics, with no contradictions, it is consistent with all wants and desires of the human soul; it makes vice manifest. There is no happiness where there is no progress, either in state, family or community. Vice is opposed to all progress. The cross of Christ places vice and virtue in their true positions and relations. The cross is attractive; there was nothing in the old system of philosophy that was attractive. The cross wins its way, not by force; it comes as an angel of light and mercy; it reconciles the nations closer together.

The speaker was not in sympathy with the notion that the world was worse than it was in the "good old days." If the cross fails to win you, you are lost. It is attractive because it is a system of purity. It is more than mere supposition—it brings peace and happiness. Your philosophy may carry you when all is well, when you are prosperous. But let death or adversity come, and there is a void that is not filled. The cross is perfectly adapted to every condition and situation. Simple faith is all that is required. The child, the man, the rich, the poor—all can exercise this simple faith.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York

"Unquestionably the Best Illustrated Work of the kind in the World

Harper's Magazine

Notices of the Press

There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly welcomed guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without Many Magazines are accumulated Harper's is edited There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—New York Homestead.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unequaled by any other American publication. * * * The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any cyclopedia we can place in our libraries. Harper's Magazine is a record of travel every where since the hour of its establishment Livingstone and Gordon Cumming in Africa, Stanley among the Arabs and Ross Browne in the East, upon the Nile and Macgregor on the Jordan—indeed all recent travellers of note have seen their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our younger and many of our older writers find here their literary biography. Our artists are the best, and those of their creation and the most enduring specimens of their work in the Magazine—N Y Standard.
